Southern Iberian Route

SEVILLA -> MADRID (7d/6n)

Day 1. (Sunday) Sevilla - Córdoba

Reception of passengers at 10:00 a.m. at a location to be determined in Sevilla and tour of the City. Afterward, we'll visit the capital of Andalusia, which boasts the largest historic center in Spain. After lunch, we'll enjoy a panoramic view of the city before boarding the Al Andalus Train. We'll receive a welcome toast on the train, introduce the crew, and settle in. Dinner will be served on board as the train heads to Córdoba. Overnight stay in Córdoba.

Day 2. (Monday) Córdoba – Cádiz – Jerez

After breakfast on board, we'll visit the Mosque-Cathedral and continue touring what was once the capital of the medieval Emirate and Caliphate of Al-Andalus, when it was the largest, most cultured, and most opulent city in Western Europe. Lunch will be served on board on route to Jerez. From Jerez, in the afternoon, we'll visit Cádiz, popularly known as the "Silver Cup" and considered the oldest city in the Western World. Dinner in Cádiz and overnight stay in Jerez.

Day 3. (Tuesday) Jerez - Zafra

After breakfast, we'll enjoy the city of Jerez and the show "How the Andalusian Horses Dance," a famous equestrian ballet with Spanish music. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant before visiting a winery in the afternoon. Dinner will be served on board while the train heads to Zafra. Overnight stay in Zafra.

Day 4. (Wednesday) Zafra – Cáceres - Mérida

While we have breakfast, the train will arrive in Cáceres, a World Heritage Site, where the streets, squares, and palaces are magnificently preserved, thanks to its cultural mix that makes Cáceres a unique cultural experience. Lunch will be served on board as we arrive in Mérida, where we will relive the ancient Roman Empire. Also a World Heritage Site, founded in 25 BC, we will visit its remains and history. Dinner and overnight stay in Mérida.

Day 5. (Thursday) Mérida – Alcázar de San Juan

While we have breakfast, the train will arrive in Alcázar de San Juan, located in the region of Castilla-La Mancha, internationally known for its cheeses and wines. We will visit an artisanal cheese factory and a winery. Lunch will be served in the area. In the afternoon, we will visit Campo de Criptana, with its characteristic landscape of windmills, a source of inspiration for Cervantes in his novel Don Quixote. We will return to Alcázar de San Juan, have dinner on board, and spend the night in this town.

Day 6. (Friday) Alcázar de San Juan – Toledo - Aranjuez

While we have breakfast, the train will arrive in Aranjuez. From here, we will visit Toledo, another World Heritage city, which we will consider the most monumental Imperial city in Europe. The blend of Christian, Muslim, and Jewish architecture—the Gothic cathedral, the 10th-century mosque, and two synagogues—has given Toledo its universal character. Lunch in Toledo. In the afternoon, we will visit the Royal Palace of Aranjuez and its gardens. Also a World Heritage Site, where history and beauty fill every corner of this royal site. Dinner on board and overnight stay in Aranjuez.

Day 7. (Saturday) Aranjuez - Madrid

After enjoying our last breakfast on board, we'll bid farewell to the train and its crew and end the journey in Madrid around 1:30 p.m.

A World Heritage Site, where history and beauty fill every corner of this royal site. Dinner on board. Overnight in Aranjuez.

Day 2. (Monday) Aranjuez – Toledo – Alcázar de San Juan

After breakfast, we will visit Toledo, a World Heritage Site that was once the most monumental Imperial city in Europe. The blend of Christian, Muslim, and Jewish architecture, with its architectural representations—the Gothic cathedral, the 10th-century mosque, and two synagogues—has given Toledo its universal character. Lunch in Toledo and free time before returning to the train in Aranjuez. While we dine on board, the train will arrive at Alcázar de San Juan. Overnight stay in Alcázar de San Juan.

Day 3. (Tuesday) Alcázar de San Juan – Cáceres

After breakfast, we'll visit how two of the most famous products of this La Mancha region, internationally known for its cheeses and wines, are produced. We'll visit an artisanal cheese factory and a wine cellar. Lunch will be served in the area. In the afternoon, we'll visit Campo de Criptana, with its characteristic windmill landscape, a source of inspiration for Cervantes in his work Don Quixote. We'll return to Alcázar de San Juan, from where we'll depart by train, having dinner, to reach Cáceres. Overnight stay in Cáceres.

Day 4. (Wednesday) Cáceres – Mérida –Jerez

After breakfast on board, we'll visit Cáceres, a World Heritage City, where the streets, squares, and palaces are magnificently preserved, thanks to its cultural mix that makes it a unique cultural experience. Later, we'll arrive by train for lunch in Mérida. In the afternoon, we'll visit this city of the ancient Roman Empire, also a World Heritage City, founded in 25 BC, where we'll explore its remains and history. While we dine on board, the train will depart for Jerez. Overnight stay in Jerez de la Frontera.

Day 5. (Thursday) Jerez de la Frontera

After breakfast, we'll enjoy the city and the show "How the Andalusian Horses Dance," a famous equestrian ballet set to Spanish music. Lunch will be served at a local restaurant, followed by an afternoon visit to a popular winery. Dinner on board and overnight stay in Jerez.

Day 6. (Friday) Jerez – Cádiz – Córdoba

After breakfast, we'll depart for Cádiz, popularly known as the "Silver Cup" and considered the oldest city in the West. Lunch will be served on board before the train arrives in Córdoba, where we'll visit its Mosque-Cathedral and continue our tour of what was once the capital of the medieval Emirate and Caliphate of Al-Andalus, when it was the largest, most cultured, and opulent city in Western Europe. Dinner and overnight stay in Córdoba.

Day 7. (Saturday) Córdoba - Sevilla

After our final breakfast as we arrive in Seville, we'll bid farewell to the train and its crew. We'll visit Seville, home to the largest historic center in Spain. A World Heritage City, it boasts a wealth of art and beautiful gardens. The journey will end around 1:30 p.m.
